Costs and Expenses

- a) All reasonable and necessary costs charged by your appointed representative and agreed by us in accordance with our standard terms of appointment.
- b) The costs incurred by opponents in civil cases if you have been ordered to pay them, or you pay them with our agreement.

DAS/we/our/us DAS Legal Expenses Insurance Company Limited.

Insured Incident a specific or sudden accident which causes your death or bodily injury.

Preferred Law Firm a law firm or barristers' chambers which we choose to provide legal services. These legal specialists are chosen based on their proven expertise to deal with claims like yours and must comply with our agreed service levels, which we audit regularly. They are appointed according to our standard terms of appointment.

Reasonable Prospects for civil cases, the prospects that you will recover losses or damages (or obtain any other legal remedy that we have agreed to, including an enforcement of judgment), make a successful defence or make a successful appeal or defence of an appeal, must be at least 51%. We, or a preferred law firm on our behalf, will assess whether there are reasonable prospects.

Standard terms of appointment the terms and conditions (including the amount we will pay to your appointed representative) that apply to the relevant type of claim, which could include a conditional fee agreement (no win, no fee). The amount we will pay a law firm (where acting as the appointed representative) is currently £100 per hour. This amount may vary from time to time.

What is covered

1. In the event of an insured incident which causes your death or bodily injury we will pay you up to £25,000 for the costs and expenses of an appointed representative, to provide legal advice and where there are reasonable prospects to take legal action on your behalf to recover losses or damages against negligent third-parties.

What is not covered

1. Any claim where at any point, we or the appointed representative assess that there are not reasonable prospects of success.
2. Any legal proceedings not dealt with by a court of law or by another body agreed by us.
3. Any claim where you have failed to notify us of the insured incident within a reasonable time of it occurring and where this failure adversely affects the reasonable prospects of a claim or we consider that our position has been prejudiced.
4. An insured incident arising before the start, or after the end of a trip.

5. Costs and expenses incurred before our written acceptance of a claim.

6. In the event that you decide not to use the services of a preferred law firm, any costs and expenses in excess of those which we would have incurred had you done so under our standard terms of appointment. The amount we will pay a law firm (where acting as the appointed representative) is currently £100 per hour. This amount may vary from time to time.

7. Any claim relating to any illness or bodily injury that happens gradually or is not caused by a specific or sudden accident.

8. Any claim relating to psychological injury or mental illness unless the condition follows a specific or sudden accident that has caused your physical bodily injury.

9. Defending your legal rights (we will however, cover defending a counter-claim).

10. Any claim relating to clinical negligence.

11. Fines, penalties, compensation or damages that a court or other authority orders you to pay.

12. Any legal action which you take that which we or the appointed representative have not agreed to, or where you do anything that hinders us or the appointed representative.

13. A dispute with us which is not otherwise dealt with under Additional condition 7.

14. Costs and expenses arising from or relating to judicial review, coroner's inquest or fatal accident inquiry.

15. Any costs and expenses which are incurred where the appointed representative handles the claim under a contingency fee arrangement.

16. Any claim against us, our agents, a tour operator or travel agent.

17. Any claim where you are not represented by a law firm or barrister.

18. Anything mentioned in the General exclusions shown on page 6.

Additional conditions applying to this section

1. a) On receiving a claim, if legal representation is necessary, we will appoint a preferred law firm as the appointed representative to deal with your claim. They will try to settle your claim by negotiation without having to go to court.

b) If the appointed preferred law firm cannot negotiate settlement of your claim and it is necessary to go to court and legal proceedings are issued or there is a conflict of interest, then you may choose a law firm to act as your appointed representative.

c) If you choose a law firm as the appointed representative who is not a preferred law firm, we will give your choice of law firm the opportunity to act on the same terms as a preferred law firm. However if they refuse to act on this basis, the most we will pay is the amount we would have paid if they had agreed to our standard terms of appointment. The amount we will pay a law firm (where acting as the appointed representative) is currently £100 per hour. This amount may vary from time to time.

d) The appointed representative must co-operate with us at all times and must keep us up to date with the progress of the claim.

2.a) You must co-operate fully with us and with the appointed representative.

b) You must give the appointed representative any instructions that we ask you to.

3. a) You must tell us if anyone offers to settle a claim. You must not negotiate or agree to a settlement without our written consent.

b) If you do not accept a reasonable offer to settle a claim, we may refuse to pay any further costs and expenses.

c) We may decide to pay you the reasonable value of your claim, instead of starting or continuing legal action. In these circumstances you must allow us to take over and pursue or settle any claim on your behalf. You must also allow us to pursue at our own expense and for our own benefit, any claim for compensation against any other person and you must give us all the information and help we need to do so.

d) Where a settlement is made on a without-costs basis we will decide what proportion of that settlement will be regarded as costs and expenses and payable to us.

4. a) You must instruct the appointed representative to have costs and expenses taxed, assessed or audited if we ask for this.

b) take every step to recover costs and expenses and court attendance that we have to pay and must pay us any amounts that are recovered.

5. If the appointed representative refuses to continue acting for you with good reason, or if you dismiss the appointed representative without good reason, the cover we provide will end immediately, unless we agree to the appointment of another appointed representative.

6. If you settle or withdraw a claim without our agreement, or do not give suitable instructions to the appointed representative, we can withdraw cover and will be entitled to reclaim from you any costs and expenses we have paid.

7. In respect of an appeal or the defence of an appeal, you must tell us within the time limits allowed that you want to appeal. Before we pay the costs and expenses for appeals, we must agree that reasonable prospects exist.

8. For an enforcement of judgment to recover money and interest due to you after a successful claim under this section, we must agree that reasonable prospects exist, and where an award of damages is the only legal remedy to a dispute and the cost of pursuing legal action is likely to be more than any award of damages, the most we will pay in costs and expenses is the value of the likely award.

9. If there is a disagreement between you and us about the handling of a claim and it is not resolved through our internal complaints procedure, you can contact the Financial Ombudsman Service for help. Alternatively there is a separate arbitration process. The arbitrator will be a barrister chosen jointly by you and us. If there is a disagreement over the choice of arbitrator, we will ask the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators to decide.

10. We may require you to obtain, at your expense, an opinion on the merits of the claim or proceedings or on a legal principle from a legal expert. The expert must be approved in advance by us and the cost agreed in writing between you and us. Subject to this, we will pay the cost of getting the opinion if the expert's opinion indicates that it is more likely than not that you will recover damages (or obtain any other legal remedy that we have agreed to) or make a successful defence.

11. You must:

- a) keep to the terms and conditions of this section.
- b) take reasonable steps to avoid and prevent claims.
- c) take reasonable steps to avoid incurring unnecessary costs.
- d) send everything we ask for, in writing.
- e) report to us full and factual details of any claim as soon as possible.
- f) give us any information we need.

12. We will, at our discretion, void this section (make it invalid) from its start date or from the date of claim, or alleged claim, or we will not pay the claim if:

- a) a claim you have made to obtain benefit under this section is fraudulent or intentionally exaggerated, or
- b) a false declaration or statement is made in support of a claim.

13. If any claim covered under this section is also covered by another policy, or would have been covered if this section did not exist, we will only pay our share of the claim even if the other insurer refuses the claim.

14. In the event of your death as a result of an insured incident the benefits of this cover will attach to your personal representative (next of kin).

15. This section is governed by the law that applies in the part of the United Kingdom, Channel Islands or Isle of Man where the insured person normally lives. Otherwise, the law of England and Wales applies. All Acts of Parliament mentioned in this section include equivalent laws in Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands as appropriate.

16. Apart from DAS, an insured person is the only person who may enforce all or any part of this section and the rights and interests arising from or connected with it. This means that the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to this section in relation to any third-party rights or interest.
